"Shadows of a Great City for Saturday evening." One of Americas most successfal melo-dramas "The Shadows of a Great City" will be presented by Dailey's clever company with complete scenic effects which prison. The action which, is points-in all-day dog. spirited throughout, calls for the fall east of the company and in troduces several members in wholesome comedy characters seen in everyday life, notably Mrs. Bates as Biddy Ronan, Mr. Dailey as Abe Nathan and Mr. Conners as Jim Darren, a tough thief. Mr. Vinton and Miss Nannary have strong dramatic parts, that are highly interesting. Next to "Monte Cristo," this is one of the biggest presentations of the season and will undenbiedly be witnessed by a large house.

Josephine Gassman as the Bad Boy and Mr. Dailey as Schultz will supply a fund of laughter at JOBBERS OF the matinee Saturday.

The prices for the children's matinee have been placed at 25 cents and 50 cents, at which laughter will be cheap.
